      - However microwave may cleaned twice a week for cleanliness
    - Take garbage bag from LSS room and use it to throw things away

- Renting lockers to non-law students
  - Lockers are the domain of the LSS
    - Are we willing to rent out lockers to non-students?
      - Locker registration: law students get dibs, and at that time non-law students can rent for $10 a semester: 3 weeks into the semester.
        - Locks must be removed a day after class at 5PM. If not removed then the lock will be removed.
    - If not, what does that look like?
      - They are not paying LSS fees
      - Not on our list-serves
      - We have additional students who come in through the year (second semester) after locker registration
  - We will return to this item next week after we know how many empty lockers there are.
- Staff Presence in Facebook Groups
  - Is this something the LSS should get involved?
  - Maybe as we do represent the student body
- United Way Campaign involvement
  - Raises money for charitable events and programs in the city
  - Dean Webber is the event chair this year.
  - Raising awareness of the campaign in the community and on campus
  - LSS could potentially do a Bake Sale?
  - We will discuss what our involvement will look like next week.
- Big Plans
  - Accessibility issues to the Victoria House
    - Concern about whether it is accessible and how the LSS can get involved
  - Accessibility Fund
  - Phone space
    - Private space to take calls
  - Constitutional Reform – LSS Summer Rep
    - Summer students are paying LSS fees and there is no one around to support them on campus
  - Funding procedure for requests for Funding
