HOT ON THE DOCKET

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF WOMEN JUDGES

Have your daydreams sometimes involved you in the role of trial or appellate judge? Want to know more about what that would feel like? Or maybe just share a meal and converse with a woman who does know?

The Canadian Chapter of the International Association of Women Judges has chosen a few law schools across Canada to host an event for trans and cis women law students and women judges. This year UVic will be hosting the event on Tuesday February 20, 5:30-7:30pm in room 152. There will be 4 judges, some food and drink, and the opportunity to converse with each of the judges (from a variety of court levels, from Victoria and Vancouver).

There are 24 spots for 2nd or 3rd year trans and cis women students. If you're interested or have any questions, email Professor Johnson at rjohnson@uvic.ca with your name and year.

INDIGENOUS / CANADIAN HISTORY 101: WHAT YOU DIDN'T LEARN IN HIGH SCHOOL

Who was BC's first Indigenous cabinet minister? What was the Potlatch Ban? When was the oldest known Inuit portrait created? What is UNDRIP? Which important court cases have clarified Indigenous rights?

This interactive learning experience will investigate 12,000 years of history in 1.5 hours, including significant elements of the Indian Act, important court cases related to Indigenous rights and title, and historical moments in Indigenous/settler relations in the land now known as Canada. This event will take place in the lounge on the evening of February 20th from 6-8:30 pm! Please RSVP with any dietary restrictions to sarah.robinson@live.ca for free pizza!

LAW NEEDS FEMINISM PHOTOSHOOT

Join UVic Femlaw for their second annual Law Needs Feminism Because Photoshoot on Monday, February 5th at 12:00pm in room 142. Come prepared with a brief caption of why you believe law needs feminism or make something up on the spot. The phenomenally talented Debbie Preston will snap your photo and you will be out the door. Your caption and photo will be made available online later in February and displayed at the LNFB National Forum at McGill University in March.

The event is open to EVERYONE. However you identify, we want to hear from you! If you aren't comfortable having your photo taken but you still want to be a part of the movement, shoot us a private message and we will cook up an alternative.

See the national site for more information at

A CELEBRATION OF TED HUGHES

Join us this week for a conversation with BC's most distinguished public-sector jurist on Child Protection, Conflicted Premiers, the Suppression of Protests, and the Public Interest. Interviewed by CBC journalist Laura Lynch. Special guests David Eby, QC, Attorney-General, Maureen Maloney, former Deputy AG and Dean of Law, and Mary Ellen Turpel-Lafon, former BC Representative for Children and Youth, will speak. Wednesday, February 7th from 5:00-6:30pm in Fraser 159.

RADU POPESCU RULES AND ELECTION COMMITTEE

The LSS is reviewing our bylaws this year and we are looking for members to join the new and improved Radu Popescu Rules and Election Committee. If you are looking to get involved in the UVic Law community and boost your resume, contact VP Student Affairs Will McClary at vpsa.uviclss@gmail.com. The meeting will have coffee and donuts!

MESSAGE FROM YOUR LSS EXECUTIVE

A hello from your new Director of Finance

This week Deer Fraser is pleased to introduce the new Director of Finance, Rachel Sproule!

Rachel completed her undergrad at the University of the Fraser Valley in Criminal Justice. Rachel has insider information on all the best brunch places in Victoria and would choose death over decaf.

Catch her always smiling in the halls or at her LSS office hours Wednesdays between 10:30 and 12.

WARM FUZZIES

Congratulations to all the brilliant individuals who shared their talents with us this Skit Night! Who said law students could only be good at one thing? (I don't think anybody ever has, actually). Thank you to everybody for coming out and to Lisa and Jordyn our social coordinators for working tirelessly to organize it all!
