HOT ON THE DOCKET

INDIGENOUS / CANADIAN HISTORY 101: WHAT YOU DIDN'T LEARN IN HIGH SCHOOL

Who was BC's first Indigenous cabinet minister? What was the Potlatch Ban? When was the oldest known Inuit portrait created? What is UNDRIP? Which important court cases have clarified Indigenous rights?

This interactive learning experience will investigate 12,000 years of history in 1.5 hours, including significant elements of the Indian Act, important court cases related to Indigenous rights and title, and historical moments in Indigenous/settler relations in the land now known as Canada. This event will take place in the lounge on the evening of February 20th from 6-8:30 pm! Please RSVP with any dietary restrictions to sarah.robinson@live.ca for free pizza!

SKIT NIGHT

The rowdiest, funniest night of law school is coming up this Friday, February 2nd. $15 dollars gets you admission and a free drink ticket. Tickets will be on sale this week at lunch in front of the lounge.

Call for bartenders! If you're certified to serve alcohol and want to volunteer, send an e-mail to social.uviclss@gmail.com. Volunteers get free admission!

RADU POPESCU RULES AND ELECTION COMMITTEE

The LSS is reviewing our bylaws this year and we are looking for members to join the new and improved Radu Popescu Rules and Election Committee. If you are looking to get involved in the UVic Law community and boost your resume, contact VP Student Affairs Will McClary at vpsa.uviclss@gmail.com. The meeting will have coffee and donuts!

NEW GENDER-INCLUSIVE WASHROOMS IN THE FRASER BUILDING

Last week, the signage for the two main washrooms in the Fraser Building was changed to be accessible to people of all gender identifications. Three cheers for gender inclusivity!

MESSAGE FROM YOUR LSS EXECUTIVE

Following the by-election, the LSS is pleased to welcome three members to the executive. Bronwen Black is continuing as your Accessibility Rep, Mbaka Wadham is continuing as Co-op Rep, and Maleika Jeewanjee is your new General Secretary.

A hello from your new General Secretary:

Hi all! I'm Maleika and as General Secretary I'll be behind Deer Fraser and answering e-mails for the LSS at lss@uvic.ca

Send over anything you'd like to see in Deer Fraser and any questions the LSS can help you out with!

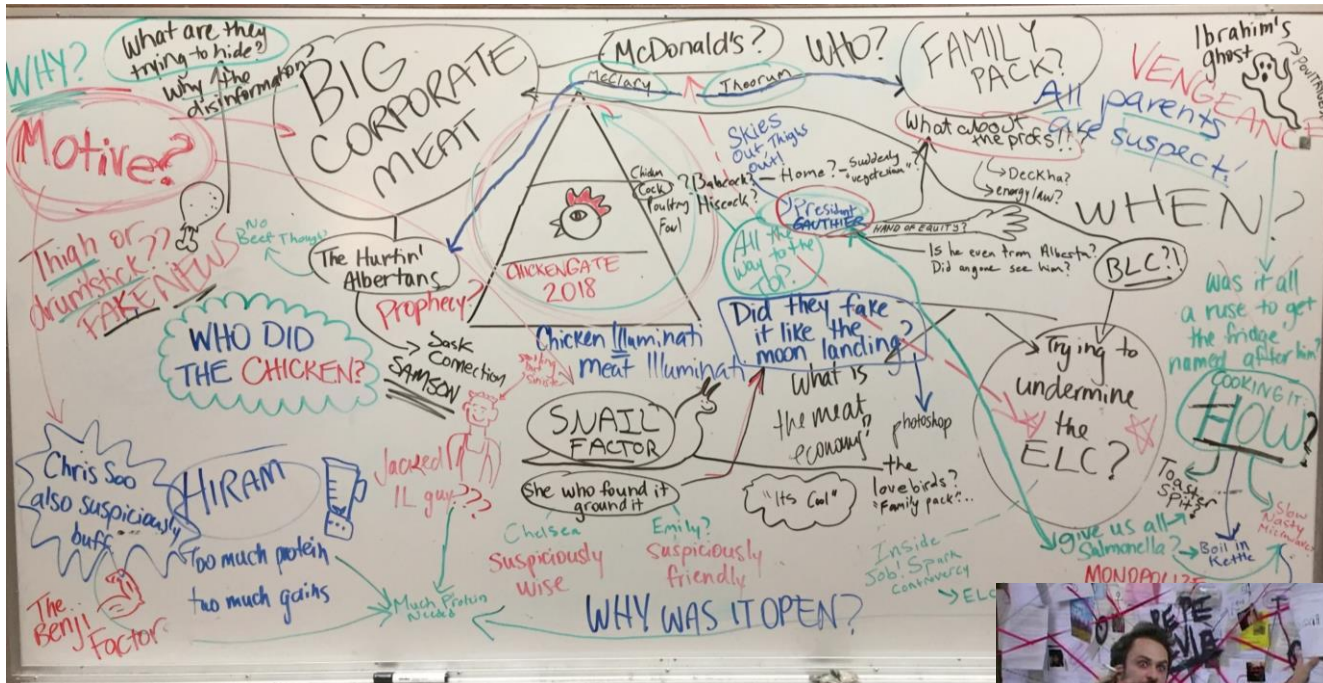

WARM FUZZIES

A continuing thank you to our social coordinators, Jordyn Bogetti and Lisa Harder for all of the hard work and dedication that they are putting into this year's Skit Night! It's a big job, and the final stretch is almost over ladies!
