HOT ON THE DOCKET

WHAT IS BUSINESS LAW PANEL

The Business Law Association (BLA) is pleased to be hosting our annual "What is Business Law?" panel discussion again this year!

This is a great opportunity for students interested in business law to come with their questions and hear from current business lawyers who will be speaking about their unique practice experience in this exciting area of law.

Panelists include Gary Campo, a partner from Woodward & Company in Victoria, and Mark Lively, an associate from Farris, Vaughan, Wills & Murphy LLP in Vancouver.

The event will be in room 152 from 12-1:30pm on Wednesday, November 21. Lunch will be provided. See you there!

FUNDRAISER FOR LEL,TOS: AN EVENING OF ART & GRATITUDE

What: An evening of indigenous law and art in support of Tsawout First Nation's aboriginal title claim for LEL,TOS (James Island)

When: Thursday, November 29, 6pm-9pm

Where: Tsawout First Nation, 7725 Tetayut Road, Saanichton, BC, V8M 2E4

Details: Tsawout members were forced off LEL,TOS in the 1870s and their permanent, pre-contact presence has been disrupted ever since; traditional knowledge-holders will explore Tsawout's ownership of LEL,TOS

Important note: Bring cash for 50/50 draws, gift-basket auctions, and a First Nations vendors' market

Tickets are by donation (suggested donation of $10 for students). Get your tickets by going to: <https://leltosfundraiser.eventbrite.ca>

Please see the event poster at the end of this newsletter.
