HOT ON THE DOCKET

ELECTIONS UPDATE

New timeframe for elections: elections will now run from January 25th to February 1st. Don't forget to vote!

STUDENT MEET AND GREET FOR UVIC LAW FACULTY CANDIDATES

You're all invited to a series of Student Meet and Greet events for UVic Law Faculty Candidates! Over the month of January, UVic Law will be interviewing 7 candidates for 3 faculty positions. You have the opportunity to contribute your opinions to this process and have an impact on the long term learning experiences of current and future UVic law students.

There will be a drop-in student meet and greet for each of the Candidates, scheduled from 2:30-3:15 in the Faculty Work Room (FRA 209) on the following days: Thurs. Jan. 10; Mon. Jan. 14; Wed. Jan. 16; Mon. Jan. 21; Thurs. Jan. 24; Fri. Jan. 25; Mon. Jan. 28.

PLEASE DO NOT DISCUSS THE CANDIDATES NAMES OUTSIDE OF THE UVIC LAW COMMUNITY. CANDIDATE CONFIDENTIALITY IS OF THE UTMOST IMPORTANCE.

You are welcome to bring questions to ask the candidate, listen in to the discussion, and come and go as you please. Light refreshments will be provided.

The primary focus this year is hiring candidates with an interest and capacity to teach in both the JD program and in relation to some branch of Indigenous law within the JD/JID program. The faculty is especially interested in candidates that can teach in both programs and have an interest in teaching Property, Torts, Admin Law, or Transsystemic Business Associations.

You can contribute your feedback to the host, Corbin Greening, your Undergraduate Student representative for the Appointments Advisory Committee. He can be contacted at cgreening@gmail.com

You can find the candidates CV's at the front desk of the library for viewing.

WHAT DOES IT ALL MEME?

Content of varying degrees of hilarity, related to the law school experience

you know s 65
you are a law student when...
...you get a cold
and think: 'if only I was using the carbolic smoke ball,
I could get £100'
