LSS AWARDS NOMINATIONS

This is your final reminder to submit nominations for the LSS Awards, as nominations will stop being collected tomorrow, March 25 at 9:00am.

Every year, the UVic Law student body participates in nominating faculty, staff, and students for the LSS Awards. A list of the awards and their descriptions can be accessed here, and nominations can be submitted here.

You must submit a complete nomination in order for it to be considered by the LSS executive. A complete nomination includes the name and year of the person you are nominating, the award you are nominating them for, the reasons why you are nominating them (please help our LSS executive out by providing strong reasons for your nomination), and your FULL name. Your name will be kept confidential and is only collected to ensure fairness in this process.

Winners will be announced at the Dean's Lunch on Thursday, April 4!

LSS ELECTIONS

Election voting is available at "<http://webvote.uvic.ca>" until THURSDAY MARCH 28th @ 12:00PM (NOON).

The issue with the previous elections system has been corrected by manually entering lists of students rather than relying on a flawed classification system, but manual tasks are still vulnerable to human error, so if you are still having issue with eligibility, please inform the Chief Electoral Officer at "finance.uviclss@gmail.com".

ANY CONCERNS OR QUESTIONS ARE TO BE DIRECTED TO THE CHIEF ELECTORAL OFFICER.

FRASER NEEDS FEMINISM

Wednesday, March 27, at 12:20 PM in Fraser Room 142

Photos. Food. Feminism.

Join UVic FemLaw for this year's #LawNeedsFeminismBecause launch event to find out why your peers think law needs feminism and share your own ideas about what we can do to make Fraser an inclusive space for everyone.

This drop-in event will include an exhibition of the photos alongside tea, treats, handouts with resources, and a display of feminist books. If you had your photograph taken earlier this month, it will be available for pickup at this event.
